Mary Cummings Park: Towards a Greater Boston

Thursday
June 24, 2010
6-7:30 p.m.

Learn about the Mary Cummings Park, a 210-acre former farmland situated 12 miles northwest of Boston that was left in trust to the City of Boston in the 1930s for the outdoor enjoyment of the residents of Boston and the Commonwealth. Topics discussed will include the Cummings Family's historical ties to Boston, programs that benefited the children of Boston from the 1940s through the 1990s, a description of the Park's topography and hiking trail system, and upcoming events and programs. Photographs from the annual Mary Cummings Park Artwork Contest will be exhibited and light refreshments will be served. This program is sponsored by the Friends of Mary Cummings Park.
